

ALEC EXPOSED

"ALEC" has long been a secretive collaboration between Big Business and "conservative" politicians. Behind closed doors, they ghostwrite "model" bills to be introduced in state capitols across the country. This agenda—underwritten by global corporations—includes major tax loopholes for big industries and the super rich, proposals to offshore U.S. jobs and gut minimum wage, and efforts to weaken public health, safety, and environmental protections. Although many of these bills have become law, until now, their origin has been largely unknown. With ALEC EXPOSED, the Center for Media and Democracy hopes more Americans will study the bills to understand the depth and breadth of how big corporations are changing the legal rules and undermining democracy across the nation.

Resolution to Oppose the Conservation and Reinvestment Act (CARA)

Did you know the trade group for the gas industry was a corporate co-chair in 2011?

WHEREAS, there has been a recent expansion of federal powers to acquire public lands under the Antiquities Act of 1906; and

WHEREAS, political studies have shown public discord in response to increased regulatory powers and recent events have underscored the inability of a distant central government to manage forested public lands; and

WHEREAS, through these actions of the federal government there has been an erosion of the local tax base and private property rights; and Whereas, there has been inadequate provisions for local or state government review of federal plans to acquire public land; and

WHEREAS, these recent actions by the federal government violate Jeffersonian principles of limited government and individual freedom; Therefore, be it resolved that the membership of the American Legislative Exchange Council is opposed to the passage of the Conservation and Reinvestment Act by the U.S. Congress.

*Adopted by the Natural Resources Task Force at the Annual Meeting, July 28, 2000.
Approved by the full ALEC Board of Directors August, 2000.*
